

Concord Cultural Council meeting
March 3, 2021
Via Zoom

Present: Tom Martin, chairman; Terry Yanulavich, Tooey Rogers, Betsy Levinson. Absent: Leli Sudler.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Martin at 6:03 p.m. The minutes from the previous meeting were approved.

Terry and Tooey sent out the letters of awards to the grant winners. Betsy sent a press release listing the grant winners to the Concord Journal.

The council decided to plan a reception for grantees for Wednesday, Sept. 8 at 6 p.m. Betsy will check with the town on a venue. We are thinking perhaps the Town House.

Tom will contact the Mass. Cultural Council for funding for the reception. We will discuss further via email, and meet again closer to September to plan final details.

Tooey suggested that the local council come up with a logo, and he will send us potential designs and we will discuss via email. Tom suggested we could include a sum for the logo in our budget for next year. The MCC requires that we include their logo on all our publications and correspondence.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:19 p.m. Tooey read a poem by Anais Nin:

Risk

And then the day came,
when the risk
to remain tight
in a bud was more painful than the risk it took to blossom.

The meeting was adjourned at 6:19 p.m.
